

To schedule a program, please contact
Education Program ■ 633-7082, ext. 22 ■ npsa_info@nps.gov

Available Curriculum-Based Education Programs

These programs can be tailored to your specific lesson plan. Choose from any of these topics or explore other possibilities:

- What is a National Park?
To better understand the National Park Service, its mission and what role it plays in American Samoa.

- Tropical Rainforest
Invasive species. Food Chain. Types of ecosystems. How to get involved in preserving our ecosystem.

- Coral Reefs | Marine Wildlife
How Fa'asamoa affects the reefs and why we should care. Food chain. Reef benefits.

- Native Birds
Bird species. Evolution. Ecological niches.

- Fruit Bats
Why are bats here? Bat cultural traditions. What are bats ecological role?

- Samoan Cultures | Traditions
Traditional uses and techniques such as tool making, siapo, weaving, tattoos.

- U.S. History
American Samoa's role in United States and World history? WWII history such as Blunts and Breakers Point.

- Earth Science
How were islands formed? Climate Change. Geology. Biodiversity. Coral bleaching and Acidification.

- Archeology of Samoa
What is left behind and what can it tell us about the Samoan practices and culture.

- Guided Hikes
Short or long hikes with educational themes throughout the island.

To view curriculum materials, go to www.nps.gov/npsa/forteachers/classrooms